The Secretary-General will retain the flexibility to approve or decline extensions as circumstances warrant.

Thereafter, the staff member can select one of the following three options: Option 1: The equivalent of 15 percent of an individual's gross salary allocated as employer contribution to the Workplace Pension Scheme. Option 2: An amount equivalent to 10 percent of the individual's gross salary allocated as employer contribution to the Workplace

Pension Scheme and 5 percent allocated to the gratuity scheme.

Option 3: Opt out of the Workplace Pension Scheme and have 15 percent of an individual's gross salary paid into the Gratuity Scheme. This must be done within 30 days following enrolment.

In respect of the Gratuity Scheme each month the Secretariat will pay the equivalent of 15 percent or 5 percent of an individual's gross salary into an interest bearing account. At the end of the contract, the staff member will receive an ex-gratia payment of the cumulative amount including interest. This payment is subject to the Secretary-General's discretion.

Personal contributions to the Workplace Pension Scheme are subject to limits set by HRMC.

Retirement Age

The Commonwealth Secretariat retirement age is 65 years.

Private Healthcare and Dental Cover

The Secretariat provides non-contributory private healthcare and dental cover for all London-based employees, their spouses/officially recognised partners and children. The cover is subject to underwriting conditions.

Insurance

Subject to funding, the Secretariat may put in place various insurance schemes for its employees. Where such policies are in place, they shall be subject to the conditions of the underwriters and may change from time to time. Among the insurance policies the Commonwealth Secretariat provides is the Personal Accident/Travel policy. With regard to bodily injury, the underwriters conditions for that policy provide for the following, in respect of pre-existing conditions;

Any contributory degenerative condition or disablement (as determined by a Qualified Medical Practitioner) known by the Insured Person to be in existence at the time of sustaining Bodily Injury will be taken into account by Insurers in assessing the level of benefit payable.

Further information on the existing policies would be made available to staff by the Corporate Services Division on request. Staff shall be notified of any changes in the policies as they become necessary from time to time.

Internal Tax

In accordance with the "International Organisations Act 2005", Staff of the Commonwealth Secretariat are exempt from United Kingdom income tax on their salaries and emoluments on condition that the Secretariat levies its own internal income tax for the benefit of the Secretariat.

Internal tax rates are aligned to UK rates and allowances for the relevant tax year. The rates and allowances are applied proportionately for all staff who join or leave the Secretariat part way through the UK tax year (6th April - 5th April).

Joining the Secretariat part way through the tax year will result in you being placed on emergency tax code. This includes an amount equivalent to the UK annual tax free allowance divided into equal monthly amounts. By applying this rate, you will effectively receive a pro-rated tax free allowance for the portion of the tax year worked at the Secretariat.

Staff who were liable to pay UK tax prior to recruitment may be entitled to a refund of tax from the Her Majesty's Revenue & Customs (HMRC) if they have previous taxed earnings in the tax year of joining the Secretariat. The employee would need to apply to HMRC to determine this. Staff liable to pay tax in other jurisdictions/countries would need to apply to the relevant tax jurisdiction to establish whether they would be entitled to a refund of tax.

Further information on the above schemes can be obtained from the Secretariat Payroll team via Human Resources.
