Commonwealth Perspectives on Tackling Harassment and Violence at Work

Thursday 25 November 2021, 1130 – 1300 UK Time

The 25th of November is International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women (VAW). The Commonwealth Secretariat’s webinar on ‘Commonwealth Perspectives on Tackling Harassment and Violence at Work’ will enable Commonwealth member countries and partner organisations to share their experiences of addressing workplace harassment and violence. During the webinar, the Commonwealth Secretariat will highlight how the Commonwealth can collectively promote measures to counter workplace harassment and violence including through ratification of the International Labour Organisation Convention 190 ‘Eliminating Violence and Harassment in the World of Work (C190)’.

Opening Speakers

The Rt Hon Patricia Scotland QC
Secretary-General of the Commonwealth

Ambassador Nazhat Shameem Khan
President of the Human Rights Council, and Permanent Representative of Fiji to the United Nations Office at Geneva

Chidi King
Chief, Gender, Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Branch, International Labour Organisation
