An Inclusive Commonwealth

This year’s theme celebrates the diversity of the Commonwealth, which is made up of more than two billion people. Every one of them is different, and each of them has something unique to offer. The Commonwealth Charter asserts that everyone is equal and deserves to be treated fairly, whether they are rich or poor, without regard to their race, age, gender, belief or other identity. The Commonwealth builds a better world by including and respecting everybody and the richness of their personalities.

Commonwealth Day is 14 March 2016

The Commonwealth is made up of 53 countries around the world.

The Commonwealth is a voluntary association of independent countries spread over every continent and ocean. Its two billion people, who account for nearly 30 per cent of the world’s population, are in Africa, Asia, the Caribbean and Americas, Europe and the Pacific. They are of many faiths, races, languages and cultures.
